

Q. How will the redesign and relocation of select classrooms improve the high school?

A. Reasoning

Recommended improvements to address redesign, relocation, and remodel of select classrooms will allow for greater instructional spaces and lab areas. Redesign of current student spaces inside the interior cell of the high school will decrease hallway traffic and locker congestion. Created semi-independent learning spaces and student traffic patterns will be improved by the overall redesign of common spaces with the high school.